SECTION 3: SCOPE OF WORKS:

Executive overview

FOD management on airside is a critical and regulated service. Aircraft movement areas must be maintained such that they are free of FOD and or any other obstacles. This compromises safety of operations and compliance to regulations. Sweeping equipment is required to ensure efficient, compliant and contingency backed FOD management programme.

The key objectives for this service is:

The aim of this project is to procure sweeping equipment with the latest technology and equipment types that are new in the market but more efficient and easier to maintain.

The key objectives for this service is:

A service provider is required for the supply and delivery of FOD sweeping equipment to King Shaka International Airport. The service provider is required to provide OEM or OEM approved technical support to the airport for a period of 5 years.

King Phalo Airport and Chief Dawid Stuurman International Airport also do not have sweeping equipment therefore each site will receive 1 tow behind equipment from this project.

Objective:

- 1 x motorised mechanical sweeper for KSIA
- 2 x tow behind non-motorised sweepers for KSIA
- 1 x tow behind non-motorised sweeper for KPA
- 1 x tow behind non-motorised sweeper for CDSIA

The Contractor will be appointed directly by the Airports Company of South Africa and should be available to carry out the works as per the scope of works and service level agreement included in the specification.

4. POINTS AWARDED FOR SPECIFIC GOALS

4.1. In terms of Regulation 4(2); 5(2); 6(2) and 7(2) of the Preferential Procurement Regulations, preference points must be awarded for specific goals stated in the tender. For the purposes of this tender the tenderer will be allocated points based on the goals stated in table 1 below as may be supported by proof/ documentation stated in the conditions of this tender:

4.2. In cases where organs of state intend to use Regulation 3(2) of the Regulations, which states that, if it is unclear whether the 80/20 preference point system applies, an organ of state must, in the tender documents, stipulate in the case of—

(a) an invitation for tender for income-generating contracts, that either the 80/20 or 90/10 preference point system will apply and that the highest acceptable tender will be used to determine the applicable preference point system; or

(b) any other invitation for tender, that the 80/20 preference point system will apply and that the lowest acceptable tender will be used to determine the applicable preference point system, then the organ of state must indicate the points allocated for specific goals for both the 90/10 and 80/20 preference point system.

Table 1: Specific goals for the tender and points claimed are indicated per the table below.

Note to tenderers: The tenderer must indicate how they claim points for each preference point system.)

2. INTRODUCTION

2.1 The parties intend to provide each other with certain information pertaining to their operations and the parties are in the process of discussing certain matters with a view to concluding an agreement ("the potential agreement"), which discussions have required and will require the disclosure to one another of information of a proprietary, secret and confidential nature. Whether or not the parties conclude the potential agreement will not affect the validity of this agreement.

2.2 If the confidential information so disclosed is used by the receiving party for any purpose other than that for which its use is authorised in terms of this agreement or is disclosed or disseminated by the receiving party to another person or entity which is not a party to this agreement, this may cause the disclosing party to suffer damages and material financial loss.

2.3 This agreement shall also bind the parties, notwithstanding the date of signature hereof, in the event that either party shall have disclosed any confidential information to the other party prior to date of signature hereof.

2.4 The parties wish to record the terms and conditions upon which each shall disclose confidential information to the other, which terms and conditions shall constitute a binding and enforceable agreement between the parties and their agents.

3 USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Any confidential information disclosed by the disclosing party shall be received and used by the receiving party only for the limited purpose described in 2.1 above and for no other purpose.

4 NON-DISCLOSURE

4.1 THE RECEIVING PARTY undertakes that –

4.1.1 it will treat the disclosing party's confidential information as private and confidential and safeguard it accordingly;

4.1.2 it will not use (except as permitted in 3 above) or disclose or release or copy or reproduce or publish or circulate or reverse or engineer and/or decompile or otherwise transfer, whether directly or indirectly, the confidential information of the disclosing party to any other person or entity; and the receiving party shall take all such steps as may be reasonably necessary to prevent the disclosing party's confidential information failing into the hands of unauthorised persons or entities;

4.1.3 it shall not disclose the confidential information of the disclosing party to any employee, consultant, professional adviser, contractor or sub-contractor or agent of the receiving party (collectively referred to herein as "representative") or an affiliate of the receiving party, nor shall they be given access thereto by the receiving party -

4.1.4 unless it is strictly necessary for the purposes referred to in 2.1 above; and

4.1.5 the receiving party shall have procured that the representative, affiliate or consultant to whom or to which such information is disclosed or made available shall have agreed to be bound by all the terms of this agreement, and, in such event, the receiving party hereby indemnifies the disclosing party against any loss, harm or damage which it may suffer as a result of the unauthorised disclosure of confidential information by a representative, affiliate or consultant.

4.2 Any documentation or written record or other material containing confidential information (in whatsoever form) which comes into the possession of the receiving party shall itself be deemed to form part of the confidential information of the disclosing party. The receiving party shall, on request, and in any event if the discussions referred to in 2.1 above should not result in an agreement, return to the disclosing party all of its confidential information which is in physical form (including all copies) and shall destroy any other records (including, without limitation, those in machine readable form) as far as they contain the disclosing party's confidential information. The receiving party will, upon written or oral request from the disclosing party and within five (5) business days of the disclosing party's request, provide the disclosing party with written confirmation that all such records have been destroyed.

5. COPIES

5.1 The receiving party may only make such copies of the disclosing party's confidential information as are strictly necessary for the purpose and the disclosures which are not in breach of this agreement and authorised in terms of this agreement. The receiving party shall clearly mark all such copies as "Confidential".

5.2 At the written request of the disclosing party, the receiving party shall supply to the disclosing party a list showing, to the extent practical –

5.2.1 where copies of the confidential Information are held;

5.2.2 copies that have been made by the receiving party (except where they contain insignificant extracts from or references to confidential information) and where they are held; and

5.2.3 the names and addresses of the persons to whom confidential information has been disclosed and, if applicable, a copy of the confidentiality undertaking signed by such persons complying with the provisions of this agreement.

6. THE USE OF THE COMPANY'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

6.1 The receiving party shall not use any intellectual property of the Company (including trademarks, service marks, logos, slogans, trade names, brand names and other indicia of origin) (collectively, the "Company IP") for any reason whatsoever without first obtaining the Company's prior written consent which consent the Company shall be entitled to grant solely at its own discretion.

6.2 If the receiving party requires the use of such Company IP, a request must be sent to the Mochaki.monyela@airports.co.za. Each single request by the same receiving party shall be treated as a new request.

6.3 Should the Company provide its consent in terms of clause 6.1 above, the receiving party shall comply with the Company's policies and standards with regard to the use of the Company IP. Such policies and standards shall be communicated to the receiving party at the time the Company grants the consent to the receiving party.

6.4 Failure to adhere to the provisions of this clause 6 or the policies, brand requirements and protocols that will be communicated by the Brand Custodians Office to the receiving party, shall result in the penalty equal to the value of 2% (two per cent) of the receiving party's annual turnover in the financial year in which the aforesaid failure occurred.

7. DURATION

7.1 Subject to Clause 2.3 this agreement shall commence or shall be deemed to have commenced on the date of signature of this agreement by the last party to sign the agreement.

7.2 This agreement shall remain in force for a period of 5 years ("the term"), or for a period of one (1) year from the date of the last disclosure of confidential information to the receiving party, whichever is the longer period, whether or not the parties continue to have any relationship for that period of time.

8. TITLE

8.1 All confidential information disclosed by the disclosing party to the receiving party is acknowledged by the receiving party:

8.1.1 to be proprietary to the disclosing party; and

8.1.2 not to confer any rights to the receiving party of whatever nature in the confidential information.

9. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PARTIES

9.1 The disclosing party is not obliged, by reason of this agreement, to disclose any of its confidential information to the receiving party or to enter into any further agreement or business relationship with the receiving party. Nothing herein shall imply or create any exclusive relationship between the Parties or otherwise restrict either Party from pursuing any business opportunities provided it complies at all times with the non-disclosure obligations set forth herein

9.2 The disclosing party retains the sole and exclusive ownership of intellectual property rights to its confidential information and no license or any other interest in such confidential information is granted in terms hereof or by reason of its disclosure.

9.3 The termination of the discussions referred to in 2.1 above shall not release the parties from the obligations set out in this agreement.

10. ENFORCEMENT, GOVERNING LAWS AND JURISDICTION

10.1 This agreement shall be governed by and interpreted according to the laws of the Republic of South Africa, without reference to the choice of laws' provisions of the Republic of South Africa. In the event of a conflict between or inconsistency in the laws applicable in the various provinces of the Republic of South Africa, the law as applied and interpreted in the Gauteng Province shall prevail.

10.2 The parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the High Court of South Africa, Witwatersrand Local Division, in respect of any action or proceeding arising from this agreement.

10.3 The parties agree that, in the event of a breach of this agreement, monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy. In the event of a breach or threatened breach of any provisions of this agreement by the receiving party, the disclosing party (and/or its relevant affiliate) shall be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction and the receiving party shall reimburse the disclosing party for any costs, claims, demands or liabilities arising directly or indirectly out of a breach. Nothing contained in this agreement shall be construed as prohibiting a party or its affiliate from pursuing any other remedies available to it for a breach or threatened breach.

10.4 The failure by the disclosing party to enforce or to require the performance at any time of any of the provisions of this agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of such provision, and shall not affect either the validity of this agreement or any part hereof or the right of the disclosing party to enforce the provisions of this agreement.

ACSA management will use the following link to check your registration. VendorExactSearch\ 1.0.4 (sarsefiling.co.za)

3. We recommend that the supplier warrants and represents that, where applicable, it is duly registered for VAT under the VAT Act.

4. Failure to comply with the VAT Act in supplying a valid VAT invoice relating to the Body of Persons will result in Airports Company South Africa SOC Limited being entitled to recover any losses, penalties and interest suffered. Failure includes but is not limited to the invoice having a VAT number that is not registered to the Joint Venture/partnership/consortium i.e. if the VAT number supplied relates to one party of the Body of Persons.

The below definitions are in relation to the above requirement.

1. Definitions

1.1 Person, as defined in section1(1) of the Value Added Tax Act No 89 of 1991("the VAT Act") – includes a public authority, any municipality, any company, any body of persons (corporate or unincorporated), the estate of any deceased estate or any insolvent person and any trust fund.

The below terms are not defined in the VAT Act and as such, the ordinary meaning has been taken into account:

1.2 Consortium or Joint Venture - an arrangement between two or more persons based on an agreement to generally operate a single, limited or defined project. The parties to such an agreement will generally share control of the arrangement and share the product or output of the venture

1.3 Partnership - an arrangement between two or more persons based on an agreement. The parties to that arrangement should have the intention to be partners and the essential elements for a partnership being the partners' contributions, a profit objective and joint benefit for the partners must be evident from the agreement.

2. The Law

Section 51 of the VAT Act states that:

(1) Subject to the provisions of section 46, where any body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate (other than a company), carries on or is to carry on any enterprise-

a. such body shall be deemed to carry on such enterprise as a person separate from the members of such body;

b. registration of that body as a vendor shall be effected separately from any registration of any of its members in respect of any other enterprise;

c. liability for tax in respect of supplies by that body shall be determined and calculated in respect of the enterprise carried on by it as an enterprise carried on independently of any enterprise carried on by any of its members, and any refund relating to that body's enterprise which is payable in terms of section 44 shall be made to that body; and

d. the duties and obligations imposed by this Act on any vendor or other person shall, as respects the enterprise carried on by that body, be performed by it separately from the duties and obligations imposed on any of its members.

3. Application of the Law

When a body of persons forms a joint venture, partnership or consortium, such a body is treated as a separate legal person for VAT purposes and, is in terms of section 51(1) of the VAT Act ,required to register for VAT with the South African Revenue Services ("SARS")where the body's taxable supplies exceed the registration threshold.

Should the joint venture or partnership or consortium not be registered for VAT, VAT cannot be levied on any invoice that will be issued out to Airports Company South Africa for services rendered.
