Preference Shares subscription update

In December 2020, Airports Company South Africa SOC Limited ("ACSA") notified its shareholders of its intention to raise capital through issuance of preference shares.

In March 2021, the Government of the Republic of South Africa subscribed for preference shares for an aggregate subscription price of R2 324 750 000.

Noteholders are hereby advised that other shareholders elected not to subscribe to the preference shares. As result, the process of raising capital through issuance of preference shares to shareholders has now been concluded.
